BONN.

The sensational arrest of former SS Gen. Karl Wolff, who has been living in luxury near Munich, was believed last night to have been triggered by an angry article about post-war communism by an Israeli reporter who recently visited West Germany.

The Bavarian Justice Minister said Gen. Wolff, sixty-two, was suspected of complicity in mass murder of Jews in Nazi-occupied Europe. No further details were given.

Gen. Wolff, as a former member of the Nazi SS (Elite Guard), crewed a four-year term from a German de-Nazification court but did
